Course Description

Hospice physicians and consulting physicians are extremely involved in the care of your hospice patients. The Carolinas Center brings you Christopher Acevedo, who will discuss integrating the care these physicians provide into the fabric of your organization. From incorporating these services into the foundation of quality clinical care, to ensuring your hospice organization is capturing all of the appropriate revenue generated by these practitioners (including non-physician practitioners and those you may contract with for services), we will discuss the benefits and compliance risks that may be flying under your radar. An excellent topic for, Senior Leadership, Compliance Officers, Medical Directors, Finance and Billing Staff.
